

I want to ask the FCC to maintain a strict standard in regards to violence and indecent programming when it comes to children, they are our future and television plays a large part in alot of their lives...lets keep the standards high. Thank you for your time.
Kristin Miller